

Sunday 17 July

Assemble 4.00pm outside Clouston Hall (or inside foyer if wet)

Powhiri 4.15pm Clouston Hall

Kai (afternoon tea) 4.45pm Violet Wood Dining Room

Opening Address 5.15pm

Room	Presenter	Topic	Chair	Page
HALL	John Carr	Cold ducks, old ducks and the never-ending wave	Kaaren Hirst

Sponsors' Comment 5.55pm Clouston Hall
NZ Geographic

Registration 6.00pm Frances Compton Library
Exhibition Opening Atrium, Information Centre
Drinks & Nibbles Atrium, Information Centre

Evening Meal 7.30pm Violet Wood Dining Room - for those in Boarding House who registered for this meal

Free Evening

Monday 18 July

Breakfast (for hostel guests) 7.30am Violet Wood Dining Room

Registration 8.00am Frances Compton Library

Welcome Tea/Coffee 8.30am Atrium

Conference Welcome 9.00am Clouston Hall

Daily House Keeping 9.05am
SLANZA Awards

SLANZA President 9.20am Clouston Hall
Senga White

Keynote Address 9.30am

Room	Presenter	Topic	Chair	Page
HALL	Judy O'Connell	Do you have the keys to tomorrow?	Senga White & Oxford University Press

Sponsors' Comment 10.25am Clouston Hall
SCIS / Education Services Australia

Morning Tea 10.30am Atrium sponsored by SCIS Curriculum Corporation

Session 1 11.00am – 11.45am

Room	Presenter/s	Topic	BOK	Theme	Page
LAB	Linda Forbes	Promoting your school library through social media restricted attendance – computer lab	2,7	Heading for the horizon
I10	Rob Finlay & Gail Cochrane	Encouraging effective use of the school library by Pasifika students	3	Life savers
I11	Canterbury Registered Librarians Network	It's life, Jim, but not as we know it; The Christchurch earthquake experience	9	Navigating the big waves
I09	Donna Watt	It starts with you: A strategic approach to saving school libraries, one library at a time	9	Heading for the horizon
AUD	Tricia Nathan	Collection development life savers	8	Life savers

Monday 18 July (continued)

Session 2 11.55am – 12.40pm

Room	Presenter/s	Topic	BOK	Theme	Page
LAB	Linda Forbes	Promoting your school library through social media (continued) restricted attendance – computer lab	2,7	Heading for the horizon
I10	Rob Finlay & Gail Cochrane	Encouraging effective use of the school library by Pasifika students (continued)	3	Life savers
I11	Canterbury Registered Librarians Network	It's life, Jim, but not as we know it; The Christchurch earthquake experience (continued)	9	Navigating the big waves
I09	Donna Watt	It starts with you: A strategic approach to saving school libraries, one library at a time (continued)	9	Heading for the horizon
I08	Vicki Stephens	'Making your database sing'	5	Life savers
I12	Lois Huston	Practical housekeeping: Student librarians	9	Getting your feet wet

Lunch 12.40pm Atrium
Exhibitor Promotions 1.15pm Atrium companies TBC

Session 3 1.45pm – 2.30pm

Room	Presenter/s	Topic	BOK	Theme	Page
LAB	Miriam Tuohy & Bridget Schaumann	Google Apps Extravaganza! restricted attendance – computer lab	2	Life savers
I08	Lisa Oldham & Anne Morgan	Even E-Books have covers - Presentation is everything	9	Heading for the horizon
AUD	Judy O'Connell	Find it fast and get things done - Knowledge 2.0	7	Navigating the big waves
I09	Catherine Lee	Queering the school library: Challenging the heteronormativity of NZ school library collections to create safe space for GLBTI young people.	3	Getting your feet wet
I10	Sanya Baker	Dear Diary: The how and why of professional revalidation	1,9	Navigating the big waves

Monday 18 July (continued)

Session 4 2.40pm – 3.25pm

Room	Presenter/s	Topic	BOK	Theme	Page
LAB	Miriam Tuohy & Bridget Schaumann	Google Apps Extravaganza! (continued) restricted attendance – computer lab	2	Life savers
I08	Lisa Oldham & Anne Morgan	Even E-Books have covers - Presentation is everything (continued)	9	Heading for the horizon
I09	Tricia Nathan	Giving your collection real authority	5	Life savers
AUD	Cliff Edmeades	Unpacking the new New Zealand Curriculum for Librarians	1	Getting your feet wet
I10	Canterbury Registered Librarians Network	Are you suffering from Revalidation Journal Syndrome? Does even thinking of it bring you out in hives? Do you need a support group? We may have the answer for you.	1,9	Life savers
I11	Tosca Waerea	Everybody's doing it so why aren't we? RT @Query: What can Twitter do for me?		Getting your feet wet

Afternoon Tea 3.25pm Atrium sponsored by SCIS Curriculum Corporation

Session 5 3.45pm – 4.30pm

Room	Presenter/s	Topic	BOK	Theme	Page
I11	Colleen Shipley	Hosting a Living Library in your school		Heading for the horizon
I08	Angela Soutar & Sean Murgatroyd	e-Books 101		Navigating the big waves
I10	Lisa Salter	Good Reporting - How to put the best of what you do in the best possible format.	2,9	Navigating the big waves
LAB	Esther Casey	Remixing New Zealand digital material: Mix and Mash 2011 restricted attendance – computer lab	2,7	Heading for the horizon
I09	Warick Ashton	Practical hints and time-saving ideas for Librarians	9	Life savers
AUD	Tosca Waerea	Everybody's doing it so why aren't we? RT @Query: What can Twitter do for me? (repeated)		Getting your feet wet

Dymocks Bookshop Hour starts at 6.00pm Dymocks Bookshop, 255 Broadway, Newmarket A bus will be provided for the delegates in the boarding houses to Newmarket (not return), departing 5.45pm from outside College.

Tuesday 19 July

Author's Breakfast Julia Marshall, Gecko Press	7.15am	Violet Wood Dining Hall	presentation starts 7.30am (30mins)
Breakfast (for hostel guests)	7.30am	St Cuthbert's Staffroom
Registration	8.00am	Frances Compton Library
Welcome Tea/Coffee	8.40am	Atrium
Opening of Day Two Daily House Keeping	9.00am	Clouston Hall
SLANZA Awards	9.05am
National Library update	9.15am	Clouston Hall	Elizabeth Jones, National Manager, Learning Futures and Development, Services to Schools, National Library NZ
Keynote Address	9.30am

Room	Presenter	Topic	Chair	Page
HALL	Joyce Valenza	The Wizard of Apps (seriously remixed)	Fiona Mackie

Morning Tea 10.30am Atrium sponsored by SCIS Curriculum Corporation

Session 6 11.00am – 11.45am

Room	Presenter/s	Topic	BOK	Theme	Page
LAB	Pru Mitchell	Professional learning horizons	1,6	Heading for the horizon
109	Christine Black	When wet things happen	9	Getting your feet wet
108	Anne Morgan, Robert Baigent & Lisa Oldham	The Fearless Librarian; Lessons that can be learned from the virtual librarian		Life savers
110	Liz Christensen & Jeannie Skinner	Moving on: Chapter books for developing readers	3	Getting your feet wet
AUD	Julia Smith	Bloggging: A tool for every librarian's tool box	2,7	Heading for the horizon
111	Lois Huston & Kaaren Hirst	Choice or censorship? Collection development in special character schools	3	Getting your feet wet

Tuesday 19 July (continued)

Session 7 11.55am – 12.40pm

Room	Presenter/s	Topic	BOK	Theme	Page
LAB	Pru Mitchell	Professional learning horizons (continued) restricted attendance – computer lab	1,6	Heading for the horizon
I09	Christine Black	When wet things happen (continued)	9	Getting your feet wet
I08	Anne Morgan, Robert Baigent & Lisa Oldham	The Fearless Librarian; Lessons that can be learned from the virtual librarian (continued)		Life savers
I10	Lynn Walker	'So what made you decide to become a school librarian?' Reasons people currently working in New Zealand school libraries give for their choice of employment	6	Navigating the big waves
AUD	Joyce Valenza	Library 3.0? Virtual and physical practice: Creating new information landscapes for learners		Heading for the horizon

Lunch 12.40pm Atrium
Exhibitor Promotions 1.15pm Atrium companies TBC

Keynote Address 1.45pm

Room	Presenter	Topic	Chair	Page
HALL	Paul Little	Future Imperfect	Karen Monk

SLANZA AGM 2.30pm Clouston Hall incl Executive Awards

Afternoon Tea 3.15pm Atrium sponsored by SCIS Curriculum Corporation

Tuesday 19 July (continued)

Session 8 3.45pm – 4.30pm

Room	Presenter/s	Topic	BOK	Theme	Page
AUD	Joyce Valenza	Library 3.0? Virtual and physical practice: Creating new information landscapes for learners (repeated)		Heading for the horizon
I08	Stu Colson	How to use comics as a gateway to encourage reluctant readers to read for pleasure, particularly boys	3	Getting your feet wet
I09	Karen Leahy	Budgeting - stake your claim	9	Navigating the big waves
I10	Michele Coombridge	Developing a vibrant International Languages Collection for your school library: Inspirational ideas and practical information	8	Getting your feet wet
LAB	Esther Casey	Remixing New Zealand digital material: Mix and Mash 2011 (repeated) restricted attendance – computer lab	2,7	Heading for the horizon

Book Swap 4.30pm – 5.00pm Frances Compton Library

MUSAC Conference Dinner 7.00pm assemble at St Cuthbert's for bus transfer 7.30pm dinner starts at Royal New Zealand Yacht Squadron, Westhaven Marina
10.45pm 1st bus departs RNZYS, returning to St Cuthbert's
11.15pm 2nd & 3rd buses depart RNZYS

Wednesday 20 July

Author's Breakfast Maria Gill	7.15am	St Cuthbert's Staffroom	presentation starts 7.30am (30mins)
Breakfast (for hostel guests)	7.30am	Violet Wood Dining Room
Registration	8.00am	Frances Compton Library
Welcome Tea/Coffee	8.40am	Atrium
Opening of Day Three Daily House Keeping	9.00am	Clouston Hall
SLANZA Awards	9.05am
Keynote Address	9.30am

Room	Presenter	Topic	Chair	Page
HALL	Carol Hirschfeld	Feel the Fear	Fiona Mackie

Morning Tea 10.30am Atrium sponsored by SCIS Curriculum Corporation

Session 9 11.00am – 11.45am

Room	Presenter/s	Topic	BOK	Theme	Page
LAB	Alice Heather & Gail Cochrane	Meeting Māori students' needs in the school library	1,3,11	Life savers
I09	Donna Watt	Strategic planning for school libraries: Choosing a destination and planning the journey	9	Heading for the horizon
I10	Michelle Ayres, Kim Slack & Dyane Hosler	Responding together in shaky times. Navigating the big waves!	9	Navigating the big waves
I11	Anita Vandenberghe	'Reel in your readers': How to create eye-catching displays using materials that are readily available	3	Getting your feet wet
AUD	Kimberley Atkinson	Revitalizing a school library	9	Getting your feet wet
I08	Martin Neyland	e-books and other digital media		Getting your feet wet
I12	Warick Ashton	Practical hints and time-saving ideas for Librarians (repeated)	9	Life savers

Wednesday 20 July (continued)

Session 10

11.55am – 12.40pm

Room	Presenter/s	Topic	BOK	Theme	Page
108	Alice Heather & Gail Cochrane	Meeting Māori students' needs in the school library (continued)	1,3,11	Life savers
109	Donna Watt	Strategic planning for school libraries: Choosing a destination and planning the journey (continued)	9	Heading for the horizon
112	Michelle Ayes, Kim Slack & Dyane Hosler	Responding together in shaky times. Navigating the big waves! (continued)	9	Navigating the big waves
AUD	Judy O'Connell	Find it fast and get things done - Knowledge 2.0 (repeated)	7	Navigating the big waves
111	Hilary Greenebaum	Do you swim with sharks or dolphins?	9	Navigating the big waves
110	Tracy Dyett	Using non-fiction to support literacy

Lunch

12.40pm

Atrium

Exhibitor Promotions

1.15pm

Atrium

companies TBC

Keynote Address

1.45pm

Room	Presenter	Topic	Chair	Page
HALL	Fleur Beale	The Usefulness of Boundaries	Fiona Mackie

Session 11

2.30pm – 3.15pm

Room	Presenter/s	Topic	BOK	Theme	Page
LAB	Miriam Tuohy	Bookapedia battles restricted attendance – computer lab		Heading for the horizon
108	Linda McCullough & Christine Black	The $4 million button! Why you need to be involved with your school archives.	8	Life savers
109	Pru Mitchell	MARC my e-books: Cataloguing e-books in school libraries	5	Navigating the big waves
AUD	Senga White	Creating information literacy opportunities in your school	3	Navigating the big waves
110	Tracy Dyett	Using non-fiction to support literacy (repeated)
111	Paul du Temple	Wheeler's ePlatform		Heading for the horizon

Conference Closing / Farewell 3.15pm

Clouston Hall

SLANZA Conference 2013

Thanks from Sponsors & prize draws